Treat Dad to Less Yard Work

Waukesha (WI) – June 4, 2007 - Still looking for that perfect Father's Day gift? How about a cup of coffee, a donut, a relaxing Saturday morning, and less yard work: What more could a dad want?

Come to Retzer Nature Center on Saturday, June 16 from 10 a.m. - noon whether or not you are a dad! Enjoy a free "Less Yard Work(shop)" that will show you how to save time, money, and work while benefiting the environment by reducing the need for pesticides and herbicides. Presentations and demonstrations on simple ways to manage your yard, gardens and lawn naturally will be offered. Learn about grasscycling, composting, rain gardens, water-wise plant choices, and using your space to manage yard materials at home without hauling or burning. Prizes and refreshments provided! Reservations are required and can be made by calling 262-896-8309 by June 13.

Retzer Nature Center is located at S14 W28167 Madison Street, Waukesha. Visit www.waukeshacountyparks.com for directions. This event is sponsored by the Waukesha County Department of Parks & Land Use, Recycling & Solid Waste Office.
